

Subject and Object Pronoun Practice

Name _____

Exercise 2: Underline the correct pronouns from the choices given in the following sentences.

1. (We, Us) teachers are going on vacation together.
2. You may go with (we, us) teachers.
3. My sister and (I, me) are going to visit Grandma.
4. She can't go with (he, him) and (she, her).
5. They and (we, us) all did well on the project.
6. My father sent Debbie and (I, me) a card.
7. The teacher wrote detentions for (he, him) and (I, me).
8. A package arrived for (we, us) kids.
9. Don't hold this against Nicki and (I, me).
10. The teacher called on (he, him) and (she, her).
11. We are going to have pizza with the boys and (she, her).
12. (He, Him) and (I, me) are going out to dinner.
13. There was a tie between (she, her) and (he, him).
14. (He, Him) and the clerk got into an argument.
15. (They, Them) and the girls are following us.
16. The students and (I, me) are having a good day.
17. (We, Us) and (they, them) are playing the final match.
18. I wrote a letter to (he, him) and (she, her).
19. I like to ride with John and (she, her).
20. The principal was staring at (they, them) and (we, us).

Grammar and Writing

USE CORRECT PRONOUN CASE

Personal pronouns have subject and object cases. The two cases are often used incorrectly, especially with compound subjects and compound objects. Use a subject pronoun (I, she, he, we, or they) if the pronoun is functioning as a subject. Use an object pronoun (me, her, him, us, or them) if the pronoun is functioning as an object.

Directions: Circle the correct pronoun to complete each sentence.

1. Mako sits next to (they, them) and listens to me tell the legend of Tupa.
2. (We, Us) used to leave offerings of food near the reef.
3. Still, Mako's father and (he, him) would find the fishing nets torn to shreds.
4. No one else in the village has seen the ghost of the lagoon but (I, me).
5. A group of (we, us) fishermen went out on the water at night.
6. When Tupa attacked the canoe, (they, them) were dragged underwater.
7. (I, Me) believe it is bad fortune to speak of the monster.
8. Mako's mother does not want (he, him) to go after Tupa.
9. Since Mako's father died, it has been hard for (she, her).
10. (She, Her) didn't want Mako to go after Tupa for revenge.
11. The monster's attacks made (we, us) all afraid of the water.
12. King Opu Nui and (they, them) offered a large reward for the capture of Tupa.
13. (He, Him) will give anyone 30 acres of coconut land and a sailing canoe.
14. The reward is generous, but (I, me) am too old to hunt monsters.